Definitions:

A dance film involves the usage of multiple filming and editing techniques to convey a particular concept. All participants must be 21 and under to be eligible for the Outstanding Film Production Award.

A recorded performance is a straight forward recording of choreographed movement, it involves quite simple filming and editing techniques. The dancers and choreographers involved must be 21 and under. A recorded performance will be considered for all the awards excluding the Outstanding Film Production.

Submissions

- You have the choice to submit your work either as a recorded performance or a dance film.
- Final submissions:
 - a. Dance films and recorded performances should be submitted to FORM via a link to a downloadable MP4 video file (you can use any sharing platforms like We Transfer or Dropbox or preferably the link provided by FORM).
 - b. Ensure quality of videos is high and that you use a wide frame for filming (as oppose to vertical). Ensure the work does not exceed 3 minutes if possible.
 - c. DO NOT include in your video any title or credit.

- d. Email your final submission link to:
sharpshortdance@cityofparramatta.nsw.gov.au including your name and title of your work in the heading of your email or upload your work according to FORM's instructions. Any change from your original registration should be communicated as part of your submission email.
- e. Acceptance to participate in the festival will be confirmed by the 22nd of October.

Geographical scope

SHARP SHORT DANCE is a Sydney-based event that celebrates young talent. In this digital edition, entries will be accepted from across Australia. Regional NSW young artists are encouraged to apply.

Audience

Sharp Short Dance is a festival for young dance artists, and the audience is for General Public including families. As such, please make sure your choreography and music is appropriate for broadcast to this audience. Inappropriate lyrics or dance moves deemed unsafe or inappropriate by FORM Dance Projects team may need to be amended.

Copyright

It is important for your soundtrack to be copyright free for the livestreaming, video synchronization and website view of your work.

You may either accompany your work with original music composed or performed live specifically for your work or copyright free music.

Artlist license (<https://artlist.io/>): FORM has a licence with Artlist. You may choose a track from the site and ask FORM to download the track on your behalf. The track may be used for the purpose of Sharp Short Dance ONLY.

Below are suggestions of other sources of copyright free music:

Should your submission be subject to copyright music or contain inappropriate language for family audience, FORM may be required to substitute your soundtrack with music licensed to FORM where possible.

Criteria

- The judges will be looking for innovative, newly choreographed dance films and performances.
- The piece must be an original work.
- Schools may submit up to three works and individuals up to two works in different genres.
- All styles of dance will be considered, so long as the choreography is original and the participants meet the entry criteria.

- Each work submitted must be accompanied by a $15 registration fee per work payable as part of the online registration process on FORM website. Submissions not included in the festival will be refunded.

Mentorship

- This year FORM is expanding their mentorship capacity by offering a webinar and Q&A session with film and dance experts. The webinar will be delivered online 24 September. The webinar will be recorded and made available for further view for those who may not be able to attend.
- After the webinar, entrants will be able to consult a film expert and dance expert via email up to the submission deadline (19 Oct).

Heats and Final

- Confirmed works will be presented on FORM's website & social platforms during their allocated heat. The distribution of works into heats will be made by FORM's production team.
- Confirmed works will be presented in full during the heats. During the final, the content will be edited (Award winning works will be presented in full and other finalists' works will be shortened). FORM will add captions and credits on top of the submitted footage thus, avoid adding your own.
- A panel of judges and live audience will decide which of all the works will be presented during the final and which of the works will be nominated for the 9 awards.
- The final will be live-streamed 21 November. Finalists who submitted recorded performances will be invited to be present for pre-recording at Riverside Theatres Parramatta Friday, 20 November. ALL finalists will be invited to be present for the live stream final and Award ceremony on Saturday 21 November. Should the finalist(s) not be able to be present, a nominated representant may instead receive the Award on their behalf.
- FORM Dance Projects is committed to following government regulations concerning COVID 19 and social distancing and will ensure the safety and health of all participants. FORM expects participants to follow instructions and may ask participants to wear masks and allow for temperature testing on arrival to the theatres. Participants who may feel unwell before and during the final will be required to inform FORM's team immediately and will be asked to stay home.
